

Press Release on March 19, 2017

HKU POP releases the preliminary results of the CE Election Forum instant poll

The Public Opinion Programme (POP) at The University of Hong Kong is sponsored by The Professionals Guild and some Election Committee members to conduct an instant survey this evening (March 19) during the CE Election Forum organized by Election Committee members. Preliminary results up to 9pm are as follows:

Contact Information

Date of survey: 19/3/2017
 Survey method: There are two types of respondents, type 1 being citizens randomly selected by telephone survey during the forum, type 2 being citizens sampled before the forum and agreed to participate in the survey. Both types of citizens answered exactly the same questions, while the latter could choose to answer multiple times, in order to allow us analyse people's response over different time periods.
 Target population: Hong Kong citizens aged 18 or above who have listened or watched the CE Election forum
 Sample size: 692 successful cases (type 1 sub-sample: 353; type 2 sub-sample: 339)
 Response rate: To be confirmed
 Standard error: 1.9%
 Weighting method: The combined raw data have been rim-weighted according to provisional figures obtained from the Census and Statistics Department regarding the gender-age distribution of the Hong Kong population in 2016 mid-year and the educational attainment (highest level attended) distribution collected in the 2011 Census.
